Unit 3: Propaganda and Mass Indoctrination

Lesson 4: The Nazi Use of Mass Rallies, Parades and Public Spectacle

By the end of this sequence of lessons I will have viewed and evaluated the Nazi film "Triumph of Will" in order to explore what it tells us about the use of mass rallies and public spectacle as propaganda.

Learning Steps:

- View the film and examine its key themes.
- Consider its intended use and audience.
- Evaluate its success.

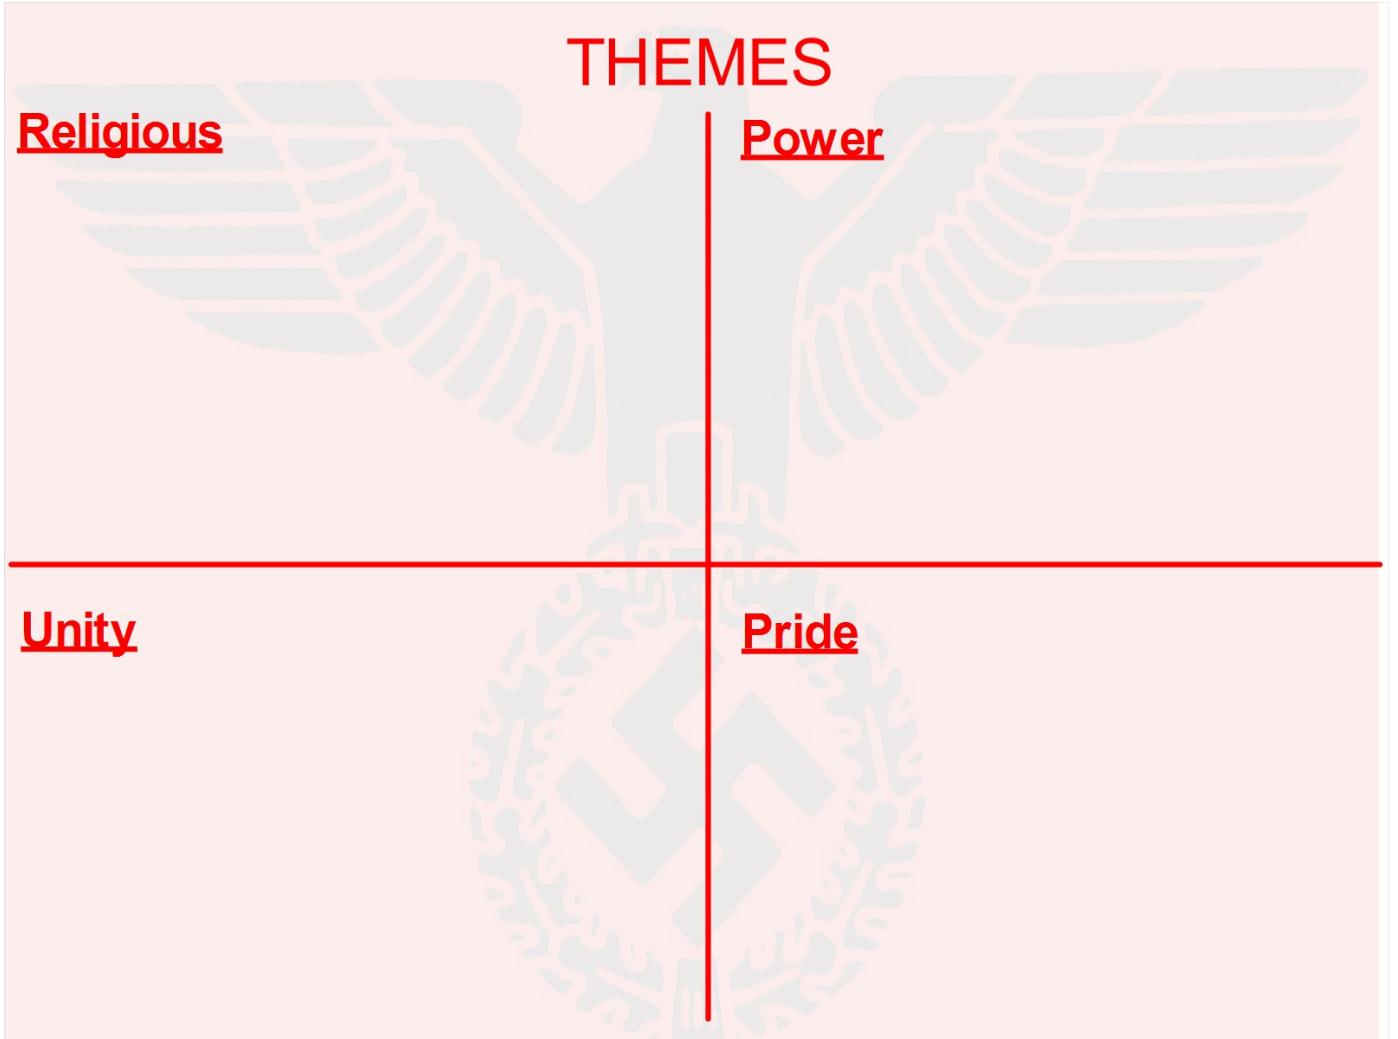

THEMES

Pride

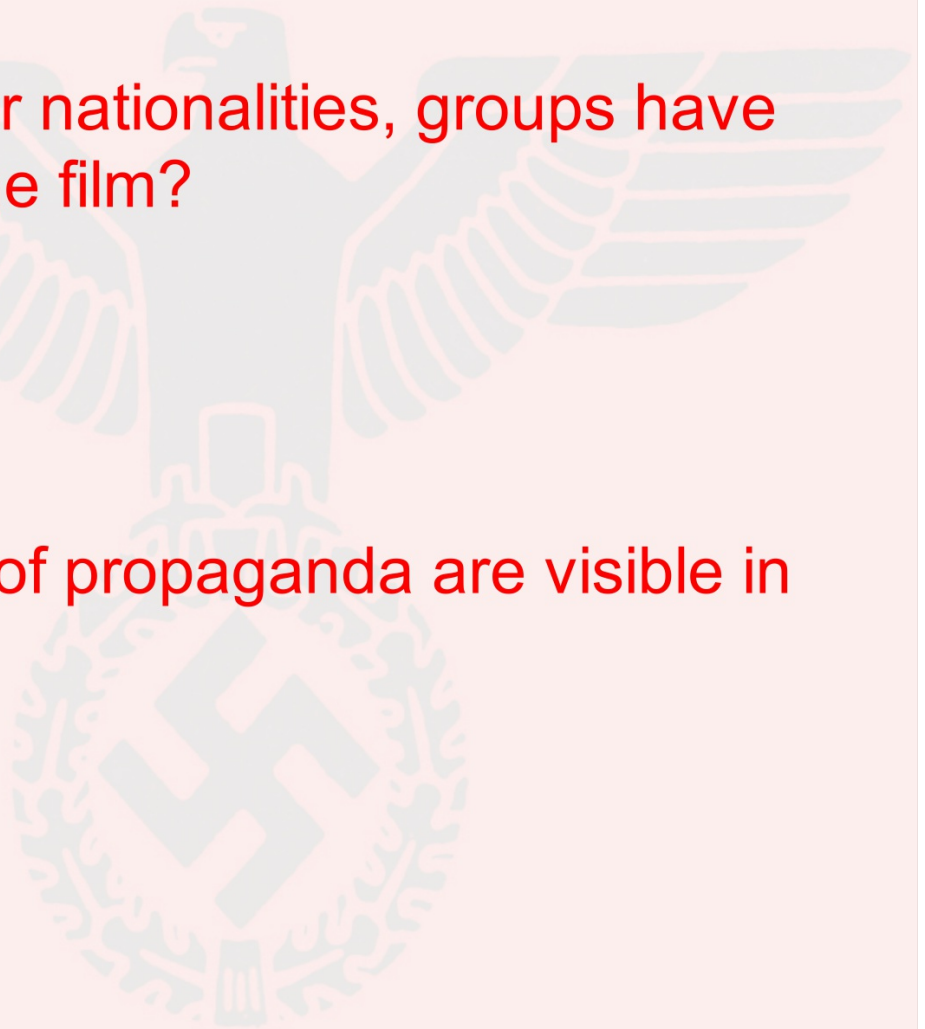

How would Nazis have responded to the film?

How do you feel ordinary Germans would have responded to the film?

How might other nationalities, groups have responded to the film?

What methods of propaganda are visible in this film?

What do you think the purpose of this film was?

Do you think it was successful in its aims and goals?
